Nobel Peace Prize 2015 has made Tunisia focus of world attention (Christian Wulff)

CARTHAGE (TAP) - President Beji Caid Essebsi received, Thursday, German former President and current President of the Euro-Mediterranean and Arab Association for Economic Cooperation (EMA) Christian Wulff.

Wulff affirmed his country’s commitment to Tunisia and its determination to help it meet security and socio-economic challenges.

Tunisia has shown the way in terms of moderation, tolerance, equality and consolidation of women’s rights, which helped it successfully complete its democratic transition, he pointed out.

He stressed the need for Tunisia to meet the standards of competitiveness to achieve a profitable growth.

Christian Wulff pointed to the importance of the Nobel Peace Prize 2015 awarded to the National Dialogue Quartet. This award has made Tunisia "the focus of world attention."

The German former president is making a visit to Tunisia leading a large delegation to take part in the 2015 Business Days held from December 4 to 5 in Sousse, under the theme: “Enterprise 2.0 and the Second Republic: Vision and Dialogue.”
